

CALL FOR PAPERS AND PARTICIPANTS

SOUTHWESTERN INTERNATIONAL STUDIES ASSOCIATION

March 16-19, 2011

Las Vegas, Nevada

“The Transformative Power of the Social Sciences”

(Proposal Deadline – October 15, 2010)

The Southwestern International Studies Association invites you to submit paper proposals for the annual meeting, held as part of the Southwestern Social Science Association, in beautiful Las Vegas, Nevada, March 16-19, 2011. More than 1000 scholars across multiple disciplines will attend, and the conference will provide you with multiple opportunities to meet and network, catch up with old friends, and make new contacts.

We encourage proposals in the forms of:

- Papers, individual or co-authored
- Complete Panels
- Roundtables
- Undergraduate and Graduate Student Research
- Panel chairs and discussants

To submit a proposal, go to the form here. Return completed forms to Jeff Justice, SWISA Assistant Program Chair, at justice@tarleton.edu. You will be notified of your proposal's status once all have been received and reviewed. We will send your final notification in mid-November.

Undergraduate Research Panels

One of the great strengths of the SWISA is our ongoing commitment to undergraduate research. We will hold panels for these students on Saturday morning. Proposals in this area go through the website above. Select undergraduate research as the section area. All presenters on these panels will be undergraduate students.

Awards

The SWISA gives best paper awards with varying prize amounts in several categories, including those for student research.
