

CALL FOR PAPERS AND PARTICIPANTS

The Southwestern Social Work Association

Affiliated with

The Southwestern Social Sciences Association

Annual Meeting, April 4-7, 2012

"Liberty, Equality, and Fraternity: Striking Gold in the Social Sciences"

Manchester Grand Hyatt, San Diego, California

Proposal Deadline - Extended - November 1, 2011

All proposals must be submitted online.

After presenting your paper, or participating on a panel, sit and relax with colleagues. Come and join us for the spectacular view from the Manchester Grand Hyatt across San Diego Bay to Coronado Island.

SSWA invites presentations on research, theory, practice, policy, and human behavior. Presentations may be by individuals, groups, panels, or round table discussions. Please consider volunteering to be a panel chair and/or discussant and mark your submission forms accordingly.

SSWA welcomes student presentations. The conference registration fee will be refunded to students contingent upon actual presentation during the conference program.

To submit a proposal:

- Go to the submission website: <http://editorialexpress.com/conference/SSSASW2011>
 - After creating a User ID and Password, you will be able to enter the proposal template.
- Avoid using abbreviations and acronyms (including your institutional affiliation); what you enter on the submission is exactly what will appear in the final program.
- Requests for A/V equipment must be submitted with your proposal.
- Note: After submitting your proposal, if you have not received an email within 3 days stating that your proposal has been received, contact the SSWA Program Chair, Dr. Sue Ellen Gardner at gardners@newmanu.edu or 316.942.4291 ext 2183.
- The status of your proposal will be sent to you by mid-December.

Spread the word to your colleagues and friends in academia and professional practice. Come participate in the sharing of relevant professional knowledge in a friendly, supportive environment with our peers.
